THIRTEENTH ANNUAL LYNDONVILLE FAIR, Lyndonville, Vermont, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, September 24, 25 and 26, 1901.

MUSIC WILL BE FURNISHED BY THE LYNDONVILLE MILITARY BAND, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF BOWEN R. CHURCH, Cornet Soloist,

who has just closed a long engagement with Reeve's American Band of Providence, R. I. Mr. Church is second to none in America as a Cornetist, and will render several of his best Solos during the Fair

A Musical Treat for Everybody.
A musical critic of great experience and taste recently said after hearing Mr. Church in one of his selections:—"I did not suppose that there was a man on earth that could play like that."

BALLOON ASCENSIONS
EACH DAY
with Parachute Drops from an Elevation of 2000 feet.

THE RACES.
The Society has abolished the entrance fee and it is expected that the entries will be more than doubled thereby and that the races will be genuine and honest. Horsemen are enthusiastic over the prospect of great races where the result is not arranged beforehand.

The Lyndonville Fair will be the Best in the Land,
And the FIRST DAY will be as Attractive as Any.
SPECIAL STAGE ATTRACTIONS.

The Management has secured the services of a famous troupe, which had the week before their appearance at Montreal at their disposal, and the visitors will see better amusements at the Lyndonville Fair than has been seen elsewhere outside of the great Fairs, the features being too numerous to mention of $50.00 offered by L. A. Darling is the largest prize ever offered in New England and will bring out an exhibit of that breed which will be of special interest to the farmers of this section, a locality unequalled in the breeding of Jersey stock, a fact not generally known or sufficiently appreciated. F. M. Abbott and H. M. Atwood, agents for the Vermont Farm Machine Co., will have a United States Separator on the ground and will be prepared to separate and test any milk for this or any class, if the owners of cows and the Judges desire.

THE JERSEY CATTLE PRIZE

THE LADIES' DEPARTMENT has been increased by a half a hundred special premiums offered by as many citizens.

Something Going On all the Time.
